

AMADEUS CHORUS & ORCHESTRA

Press release

Amadeus Orchestra return to Wells

The Amadeus Orchestra have been visiting Wells Cathedral every summer for a number of years now, always playing to very full and highly appreciative audiences.

They return this year by popular demand under their principal conductor, Philip Mackenzie.

The Amadeus Orchestra is now an internationally recognised band, having broadcast on Radio 3, Radio 4 and Classic FM, toured China twice and India once and given televised concerts to millions of people. Their concerts are renowned for their quality and vitality.
